

ESTABLISHING EVIDENCE-BASED CRITERIA FOR THE ASSESSMENT OF SUBSTANCE USE DISORDERS, TO SUPPORT THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM IN THE SENTENCING AND APPLICATION OF ALTERNATIVE MEASURES TO PRISON

Side Event organized by the
United Nations Interregional Crime and Justice Research Institute (UNICRI)
United Nations General Assembly Special Session on the World Drug Problem
Monday, 18 April 2016, 2.30 - 3.30 p.m.
United Nations, New York
Conference Room B

Agenda

14.30- 14.35	Cindy J. Smith Director, United Nations Interregional Crime and Justice Research Institute, UNICRI
14.35- 14.40	Patrizia De Rose Head, Department for Drug Policy, Presidency of the Council of Ministers, Government of Italy
14.40- 14.45	Luiz Guilherme Mendes de Paiva Secretary, National Secretariat for Drug Policy, Ministry of Justice, Government of Brazil
14.45- 14.50	Chloë Dunnett Head, Drugs and Alcohol Unit, Home Office, Government of the United Kingdom
14.50- 14.55	Richard J. Baum Director, International Division, Office of National Drug Control Policy, Executive Office of the President, Government of the United States of America
14.55- 15.00	Lt. General Baz Mohammad Ahmadi Deputy Minister for Counter Narcotics, Ministry of Interior Affairs, Government of Afghanistan
15.00- 15.05	Carson J. Fox Chief Executive Officer, National Association of Drug Court Professionals, United States of America
15.05- 15.10	Elisa Rubini Joint Statement by San Patrignano and Papa Giovanni XXIII Rehabilitation Communities, Italy
15.10- 15.30	Q&A Session
	Kevin A. Sabet, Director of the Drug Policy Institute at the University of Florida and Assistant Professor at the College of Medicine, Dept. of Psychiatry, will moderate.